EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Col. and Mrs. Brown Are Guests at the White House.

Burton-Durant and Other Weddings of This Afternoon and Tonight.

Recent Events—Notes.
 Col. Edward T. Brown joined Mrs. Brown at the White House this morning, where she has visited for some days and where they will remain for some time longer. They were on the reviewing stand with Mrs. Wilson, Miss Wilson and others of their party today.

All Saints' Church, Chevy Chase, is chosen for the scene of the wedding ceremony at 5 o'clock this afternoon of Miss Marie Durant and Mr. Earl Kelliss Burton, and a reception at the quaint public library of Chevy Chase will follow.

Tall standards of flowers, peonies and roses, decorate the aisle of the church, and a special altar decoration of spring flowers has been arranged. The rooms of the library which lend themselves admirably to flower schemes are filled with pink and white blossoms.

The bride will be given away by her father, Mr. James Maxwell Durant, and will wear a bridal robe of white satin and georgette crepe, the skirt being fashioned with a panel of duchess lace from her mother's wedding gown, held with tiny clusters of orange blossoms, and a small bouquet of the same flowers held the long tulle veil in graceful line to the court train of satin. The veil is adorned with a becoming cap of duchess lace and orange blossoms, and the bride is wearing a pearl necklace which has been arranged in the costume of every bride in the family since her grandmother's wedding day. The bouquet is of lilies of the valley and orchids.

Miss Florida Booth is serving the bride as maid of honor, and other attendants are Miss Ruth Burton, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mallory Church. Their gowns are all alike and suggestive of the freshness of the early summer season, being fashioned along bouffant lines of green tulle over cloth of silver, the pointed drapery outlined with a border of silver. Their hair is of white crin and tulle with old-fashioned garlands of silver wheat, and they will carry bouquets of white roses.

W. G. Graham of Sayville, L. I., will serve Mr. Burton as best man, and the ushers chosen are Mr. Thomas Perry Lippitt, Mr. R. H. Page of Detroit, Mr. Charles F. Wilson, uncle of the bride, and Mr. William Wilson Durant. Canon Austin will officiate at the ceremony.

At the reception Mr. and Mrs. Durant, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Burton of Champlain, Ill., parents of the bridegroom, will assist in receiving. Mrs. Durant is wearing a gown of black net embroidered in silver, with a black and silver hat.

Mr. Burton and his bride will sail for Porto Rico, where Mr. Burton is engaged in business, July 1, and when they leave Chevy Chase this evening for the first stages of their wedding journey they will wear an up-to-date suit, exceedingly smart in its fashioning of black and sapphire blue check cloth, and a becoming black tailored hat.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding, besides the bridegroom's parents, are Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Graham of Sayville, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Lippitt of Porto Rico.

turn Mr. and Mrs. Sherman will reside at 3210 Park place.

Col. and Mrs. Robert Roosevelt left Washington today for The Lilies, their summer home at Sayville, L. I.

Admiral and Mrs. George Dewey have gone to Atlantic City and taken up their residence at the Hotel Dennis for the summer. They were preceded there by Lieut. Le Breton, the admiral's aid.

Miss Eunice Dickerson Speer, daughter of Mr. Cornelius H. Speer of Oakton, Va., and Mr. Seber King Whitesell of Washington were married last evening at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Oakton, Rev. Merritt Earl officiating, assisted by Rev. Charles F. Boss, Jr.

The bride entered the church with her father, and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Rezin Watkins. The bride wore a gown of white crepe, meteor and Georgette crepe, with a tulle veil, and she carried a bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Ina Whitesell, a sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. She wore a dress of white embroidered voile over pink, and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Speer and Miss Edna Walker. They wore gowns of white mull with green sashes, and carried pink roses.

The groomsmen were Mr. Fred Whitesell and Mr. Russell Waggoner. Mr. Norman Speer and Mr. Cleo Whitesell acted as ushers. Mrs. Henry Hawhurst and Miss Tva Speer sang "O Promise Me." Just before the bride's party entered the church.

A reception was given immediately after the ceremony, at the home of the bride's father, for the bridal party.

relatives and a few intimate friends.
 Mr. and Mrs. Whitesell left for a northern wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clement Haight of Fairfax, Va., have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mary Emma, and Mr. John Alden Millan, Tuesday, June 20, at 4 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth May Armes and Mr. Lewis Bennett Wagman of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., took place very quietly this morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. H. Armes, on Irving street.

Rev. Tilden F. Chambers of Granville, Ohio, cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends. Quantities of pink and white garden flowers formed the decoration throughout the house.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Henry B. Armes, wore a beautiful gown of white satin and georgette crepe. Her tulle veil was held with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Edgar Thomas Brandenburg, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and she wore a gown of white net over pink silk and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Little Miss Mary Armes, the bride's niece, was the flower girl, and Master Charles H. Armes, her nephew, was the train bearer.

Miss Virginia Bester played the wedding music.

A breakfast followed for the guests present at the ceremony, and later Mr. and Mrs. Wagman left for their wedding trip.
